

Thanks to the Commissioners for accepting the proposed 60-meter Amateur band. It will be a significant and valuable addition. I feel mode partitioning by rule generally creates inefficient utilization within the Amateur bands, and given the limited bandwidth being proposed it would be a particularly poor idea for the 5250-5400 kHz band.

John Wilson, KK6KU